Walk in My Shoes

Table of Contents
Introduction ............................................. 1
The Experiential Learning Process .................. 3
How to Use This Book ................................. 4
Developing Life Skills ................................. 5
How Young People Learn ............................. 6
Supply List ............................................. 8
All Old Folks Are Not the Same! .................... 11
How Old Is Old? ....................................... 25
Making Sense of Sensory Changes ................. 38
What Have You Learned About Growing Older? 63
Youth Reading List ...................................... 66
References ............................................. 67
Activities

My Thoughts and Feelings ................................................. 9
What Do You Think? ....................................................... 12
Aging Quiz ......................................................................... 14
Alike and Different .......................................................... 17
Older Adults, Alike and Different ...................................... 19
Read to Know More ......................................................... 21
What’s in the News? .......................................................... 23
Portraits of Myself ............................................................ 26
My Older Friends .............................................................. 29
People Portrait .................................................................... 31
Interview an Older Friend ................................................... 33
Looking Through Someone Else’s Eyes .............................. 40
Helping a Person Who Has Vision Problems ..................... 42
Hear Ye, Hear Ye! (with “unfair hearing test”) .................... 45
What Did You Say? ............................................................ 48
Helping a Person Who Has Hearing Problems ................. 50
Butterfingers .................................................................... 53
Helping a Person Who Has Physical Limitations ............... 56
Pass the Jelly .................................................................... 59
Helping a Person Who Has Experienced Losses in Taste and Smell ......................................................... 61
My Thoughts and Feelings (end-of-project assessment) .... 64
Changing Attitudes ............................................................. 65